Hi fellow stitcher!

I'm Margaret Lee Rigiel, a needlework designer and teacher and I just love baskets.

Needlework is my first love! A passion that I love to share with others, especially through teaching. I love to play with threads, fibers and fabric to create something that comes forth with the help of that little angel who sits on my shoulder.

Have you seen the Clear View Thread/Stitch Counters I & II yet? Well, yours truly designed these special set of rulers for needlework. AND they work really well!

I hope you enjoy stitching this little design. Happy Stitching!
